Summary: On July 11, 2002, Michael Day, counsel for Wild Goose Storage Inc. (Wild Goose), met with Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in San Francisco. Day requested that the proposed decision (PD) be amended to include the changes requested in the original comments of Wild Goose. Day emphasized that the reasons for exempting Wild Goose from the Affiliate Transaction Rules were still valid. Day reiterated that Wild Goose had voluntarily offered to forego any storage transactions with its parent company or any company controlled by its parent in order to help relieve the market power concerns of the Commission. Day also explained that Wild Goose believed that clarification of the pro-rata capacity allocation plan proposed in the PD was necessary.
